JUDGE KALUA DECISION.

Wailuku, June 16.—Judge Kalua filed his written decision in re Lilia Kalua vs. John Kaahue et al. bill for dower and to cancel a deed. Extract from decision: "I do not believe, as a matter of law, that if the plaintiff underestimated the value of her dower interest in her husband's estate and knowing what she did, made a transfer of her rights that she can come into a court of equity and ask for relief after she has become aware that she could have received a greater consideration. Such, however, is not the case. While there is some conflict of this evidence, still it seems to me that the best evidence she shows that the plaintiff was led to believe that her interest was a small and doubtful one and that $200 was all that it was worth. This was too evidently the work of the defendant who was to benefit by the arrangement. The estate at the time of the filing of the bill was sworn between five and six thousand dollars and included some valuable pieces of land (at Lahaina) which have a high rental value. Such a transaction is inequitable and oppressive and should be looked upon in a court of equity with disfavor."

I believe that the deed in question was executed by the plaintiff without a full knowledge by the plaintiff of her rights and interests. That her misunderstanding in this regard was largely due to the misrepresentations of the defendant John Kaahue. I therefore find for the plaintiff in accordance with the prayer of her petition. Upon the payment by plaintiff to the estate of the amount of $200 paid to her, an order will be made to the defendants to deliver up to the Clerk of this Court the deed and the same shall be canceled."

Messrs. Thurston and Stanley were attorneys for plaintiff in 1897. A. N. Kepokai, J. M. Kanekoa and C. Creighton for plaintiff; Robertson & Wilder, Hens & Coke and Richardson for defendants.
